

What Clients Are Saying

Friendly, knowledgeable staff, we liked that the whole family was included in this process. Very informative.

Parent, Brant Counselling Services

Absolutely amazing program!
Youth, Brant Brief Services

Intensive Behavioural Intervention has helped our daughter tremendously. She is now able to communicate how she is feeling. She truly loves coming to the program. Staff are friendly, kind, and open with parents.

Parent, Halton Autism Services

The program helps with my anxiety by providing opportunities where I can learn new ways to deal with it.
Youth, Hamilton Day Program

I liked how the staff were very nice and I learned numerous strategies to help cope with my anxiety.
Youth, Halton YODA Program

I like having support to maintain my independence.

About Us

Woodview Mental Health and Autism Services has been inspiring hope and strengthening lives for over 60 years!

We go above and beyond to support children and youth facing mental health challenges, and individuals with autism and hold them - and their families - at the centre of all we do.

We treat everyone with dignity and respect and we embrace diversity. This is reflected in how everyone feels welcomed and listened to at Woodview.

We work hard to remove barriers so that everyone can engage in services and we encourage, support, and invest in community partnerships to enhance our services.

We respond to community needs by providing quality mental health and autism services focusing on skill-building, coping strategies, relationships, independence, and resilience.

Mission

Our mission is to provide high quality mental health and autism services and supports to individuals and families within an inclusive environment that inspires hope and strengthens lives.

Vision

Our vision is to be a leading provider of mental health and autism services in Ontario, ensuring everyone has a voice, feels valued, and has a sense of belonging.
