

Brantford Child & Youth Mental Health Services

Right Care
Right Time
Right Place

Woodview Mental Health and Autism Services' goal is to ensure children, youth and families are getting the right mental health care at the right time, and in the right place. If your child or youth are under 18, you can connect with Woodview directly by phone, text, email or through our website.

In alignment with the Province's Roadmap to Wellness, Woodview has created a clear path to access child and youth mental health services in Brantford-Brant.
